Junior Market Hog Show, Sale Begins Today

Appomattox County 4-H and NFA boys will participate in the Junior Market Hog Show and Sale at the Lynchburg Livestock Market on Thursday, August 8, beginning at 10 a.m. This show and sale will feature animals grown by boys and girls enrolled in 4-H and NFA market hog projects.

This show and sale is open to any bona - fide 4-H and NFA member from the following counties: Albemarle, Amelia, Appomattox, Halifax, Bedford, Lunenburg, Campbell, Cumberland, Franklin, Louisa, Fluvanna, Prince Edward, Buckingham and Prince Edward. The objective of market hog project is to teach club members good methods of production and teaching them how to select the type of market hog, how to feed for top return and to note the feeding value of certain feeds. The members are also taught how to train and groom hogs for show and to recognize the various slaughter grades and classes of hogs. All animals will be graded by a representative of the Virginia Division of Markets into U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 2, and Medioms. Official judges will be used to judge the hogs. Prizes amounting to $350.00 will be given to these boys and girls for outstanding project work.

Hubert Carter, Buck James, Simon Walker, Mary M. Webb. These 4-H members represent fifteen (15) animals to be sold at Market Hog Show and Sale, and they will show animals from the 4-H clubs of Appomattox county.

AMBITIOUS? — Make '64 better than the years before. How? Take specific skill training for business. Central Virginia's expanding economy makes the demand for men and women trained in office skills greater than the supply. Automation is opening new doors for new skills. Limited financial resources need not delay your reach toward a better future. Educational financing is available at regular bank rates. If you are unhappy in your present position, or lack or position; if you are ambitious; if you are willing to be counseled and tested (without expense or obligation): you will be wise to investigate the goals that are available through spending months, not years, in an accredited business education program at Phillips Business College. Fall term opens September 23. Placement Department will aid you in finding part - time work. Dormitories and other desirable living accommodations.
